

Curriculum Vitae

Jean-Claude Knebler

Head of Sustainable Development Department of the International and Comparative Law Research Center

Education: London School of Economics (2000), United Kingdom, École Nationale d'Administration, France (2000) JFK School of Government, Harvard University, United States of America (2012).

He served in various positions: Cargolux Airlines International S.A, Enovos International S.A., Office du Ducroire, Lux-Development, Luxembourg for Business.

In 2002–2004 — Attaché, Foreign Trade Desk Officer, Department for International Economic Relations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Foreign Trade, Luxembourg.

In 2004–2012 — Director, then Director General for Trade & Investment Promotion, Diplomatic Advisor to the Minister, Ministry of the Economy & Foreign Trade, Luxembourg.

In 2012–2016 — Consul General of Luxembourg, New York, Executive Director, Luxembourg Trade & Investment Office.

In 2016–2020 — Ambassador of Luxembourg to the Russian Federation

Since August 2020 — Head of Sustainable Development Department, International and Comparative Law Research Center.

He speaks Luxembourg, English, French, German, and Russian.